AMUSEMENTS

ALICE LAKE IN A DRAMA OF LOVE AND FAME

A fascinating story of treasure is that unfolded in "The Golden Gift," Alice Lake's latest picture, which will be shown at the Butler today. It is the story of an opera singer, who, with a young child to support, finds herself thrown upon her own resources through the desertion of her husband. She goes to a border dance hall, leaving the child to be taken care of at the old Mission, becomes a famous opera singer. At the height of her success she discovers that the man she loves has become a guardian of her child and she finds the treasure she seeks is really a golden gift. The picture gives Alice Lake a change to display again her wonderful dancing ability, and this star, who won fame for herself by her artistic dances before going to the screen, takes full advantage of it in her latest picture.

Also today, latest Pathe Review. Tomorrow, Corrine Griffith, in "The Single Track," and a Sunshine comedy, "Pardon Me."

Card party and dance given by the Rebekas, I. O. O. F. hall, Wednesday, May 24, 8 p. m. M19-61.
